

2016-2017 APUSH Survey

Question: If there's anything that you could tell next year's AP students, what would it be?

Student Responses:

- DO YOUR HOMEWORK!!! It is helpful for studying purposes and is a big part of your grade don't fall behind on the homework
- Do the homework, it counts a lot and use the website.
- You may think you aren't prepared for the AP test, but I promise you are, Mr. Loja dedicates his entire year to it.
- Do your homework and study for the exam starting now.
- DO YOUR HOMEWORK!!!! start studying earlier than you think you should
- Appreciate all the time and effort Loja puts into your class and utilize it! Ask questions, do all the homework, and actually listen when he says study for AP in advance! Also definitely do all the timelines during vacation :)
- ALWAYS do the homework, it really does help! Start preparing for the exam early and always take notes during Loja's lectures; it is very helpful to go through his power-points with things that he said during class.
- Use Mr. Loja's website as it contains a great deal of information that will help you on the APUSH exam
- do the homework and study
- The exam comes up fast, so do the homework and do the readings. There are so many outside documents on the AP exam that you read on the exam that you can draw from class, and reading and doing the work outside of class really helps you, no matter how dumb or intense you think the homework is.
- DO THE HOMEWORK if you're reading this start studying... the time passes by faster than you think... appreciate the time and effort Loja puts into his 5 star website which is more helpful than you think...
- Do the homework.
- Take notes
- Complete all homework assignments
- Take advantage of all the resources you have at your disposal. Mr. Loja has an entire website dedicating to helping you succeed and he answers any and all questions you ask him.
- Do the homework, study, but don't worry too much; it's not as hard as everyone will make it out to be.
- do the homework, use the quizzes to prep for tests, don't stress
- Do your homework especially the timelines and review the timelines before the exam as they are very helpful
- Don't be scared when Loja yells at you for complaining about the amount of DBQs we do throughout the year because it will help you in the long run
- Do the homework, don't think that it won't help, it will help immensely
- Review the stuff you don't know more than the stuff you do
- Make sure you know what your strengths and weaknesses are and focus on your weaknesses over the course of the whole year.
- The AP exam is not that bad. It's actually a good amount easier than all the tests and quizzes you take in class
- Don't stress out. The exam is easier than you think and Mr. Loja does a tremendous job of preparing you for it. DO YOU HOMEWORK AND ASK QUESTIONS. Mr. Loja is always after school and take advantage of that.
- If you do not understand anything in class, there are plenty of resources available to help you.
- Start studying for the AP exam now. And always do your homework.
- You know yourself better than anyone, study the way you learn.
- Do your homework and study. The tests and quizzes throughout the year will prepare you for the exam.
- Look at the Gilder-Lehrman Packets. They really helped with my studying this year.
- Do not complain...Loja hates when people complain.
